Body Culture & Tattoo

A Reportage by Paiman Maria Davarifard

Synopsis

Body culture and the trends of treating, understanding and representing the female body is changing in the 21st century. Using ornaments, new designs and graphics, alphabets and handwritings, photographs, images change and define new aesthetics and forms of body. The reportage is trying to let women talk about their body under the new wave of tattoo culture in the world. Individuals and artists from Russia, Israel, Germany, Greece, Scandinavia and Poland share with us their Tattoo history and Tattoo culture, the way actually women choose their Tattoo and how do they feel about it .
